I thought of you as I stood in Shakespeare's Birthplace, and wandered through this beautiful Garden that you so often told us about. I am quite in love with England, and most of all with Stratford!
We can almost feel Shakespeare here -
With much love

The Middle Temple Hall. In Fountain Court with its trees and flowers and sparkling water is Middle Temple Hall, a fine Elizabethan building used as a Dining Room and noted for its handsome old oak ceilings. Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" was acted in this Hall in the poet's lifetime.

I intended writing a long letter but have been in bed 5 days with acute lambo. My love to all of you and very best wishes. I saw the Kati Greenway 1st edition that went off yesterday from the Bones. Much love. Sabl.
